

RODA GOLF WEEKLY REPORT N°4/2016

HOUSEHOLD GOODS COLLECTION SERVICE

May we inform you that San Javier Council has already started the Household goods collection service in the Resort.

For small items and small appliances, there will be a weekly service by the Eco Park collection truck Mondays from 11:00 to 11:30 h which will be parked within the Resort by main entrance. Please dispose your undesired items in this truck.

For heavier and bigger items and appliances, please use the special collection service by ringing telephone 968573700 ext. 5215, where you will be informed of date of collection.

We very much appreciate your cooperation which will improve the looks of the Resort.

PET REGULATIONS

Last week, SECURITY reported the first denounces this year made to residents for breaking the Municipal Rules related to pets. In order to maintain the quality standards of the facilities and improve the coexistence in the Resort, may we remind you the Pets Rules.

PETS REGULATION

1. Pets must be identified with transponder (microchip).
2. Dogs will always be walked with a leash.
3. Dog owners will have to clean dog fouling.
4. Pets owners will have to make sure they do not access to other properties to avoid inconveniences for neighbours (fouling, scratches, allergies...)
5. Pets owners will take care that their pets mess is always far from children areas since that is cause of eye infection and other children diseases.
6. Dangerous animals are forbidden (regulated in the Spanish law 50/1999), together with those expressly considered in the AGM, and reasonably dangerous dogs should always wear muzzle.
7. Owners must have insurances with re-known companies.
8. It is not allowed to have pets which make any kind of occasional or regular annoying noises.

9. Dog owners will be responsible in case of breach of these regulations.

10. Local sanctions that can be faced by dog owners who break the rules are:

- Fines up to 750 €, in case of pets and dogs in children areas.
- Fines up to 300 €, for failing to clean dog fouling.

Thanks for your cooperation.
